CELERY, 3 25c SMALL YOUNG FOWL 20c 3 GRAPE FRUIT.....25c BALDWIN APPLES, pk. 35c

Order Early for Thanksgiving

ARTICHOKES LETTUCE CAULIFLOWER STEM DATES BUNCH BEETS PULLED FIGS STRING BEANS MANDARINS SAVORY CABBAGE PERSIMMONS RUSSIAN SQUASH BROILERS ROASTERS GUINEAS INDIANA LAMP MILK FED VEAL

SOMERS

MR. H. T. MILLER'S School for Dancing

28 Oak Street, Classes-Saturday-2.15 and 4 Telephone 1082 an extra large line of specially mounted small

DIAMONDS

at prices from $15.00 to

These are genuine bargains. Call and see for yourself.

Ferguson & Charbonneau FRANKLIN SQUARE

XMAS IS COMING BUT WE ARE HERE

Prettiest Store IN NORWICH

You are invited to visit and inspect

TOYS, NOVELTIES Agents For Pennants and Banners

THE BROADWAY STORE Opposite the Y. M. C. A., 67 Broadway

money—that's human nature, I gan't give you any money, but I can save you some if you'll buy your Hay, Grain and Feed from me. There's no better hay, grain or feed on the market than the kind I handle, and you'll find my prices more than reasonable, up 490 — your order will be 490 - your order will be filled

CHAS. SLOSBERG, 3 Cove Street

Beauty and Style In Eye Glasses The "So Easy

are so constructed that a slender gold band connecting the lenses is practically all that is visible, all superfluous metal being eliminated.

The Plant-Cadden Co. Opticians Established 1872

144-146 Main Street

Mince Meat

at CARDWELL'S DR. C. R. CHAMBERLAIN

Dental Surgeon In charge of Dr. S. L. Geer's pract

A late spring leaves us with an ex-tremely large stock of new goods on hand, and to move them quickly have decided to cut the prices new. You can have the benefit of it by electing at once.
PAINTING and DECORATING are

> P. F. MURTAGH 92 and 94 West Main St.

NEWMARKET HOTEL 715 Boswell Ave. Irst-class Wines, Liquors and Cigara-Icals and Welch Rarebit served to rder. John Tuckie, Prop. Tel. 42-5. TRESE is no advertising medium Zastern Connecticut ev al to The B

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Friday, Nev. 29, 1912.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

This is calendar day for December. Horace Johnson predicted fair weather for yesterday.

New London papers note that Jere-miah Duggan of Norwich has resigned at Starr Brothers.

Some of the small boys were trying their sled on the sidewalks before 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Fred Friere, the new loom fixer for the Assawaga company, has moved his family to Dayville from Norwich. The Thanksgiving mass in St. Patrick's church was at 8 o'clock and was celebrated by Rev. William F. Cav-

Don't forget to attend the Police men's ball tonight, November 29, at Olympic hall -- adv.

One of the enjoyable family dinners on the holiday was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Wheeler of Geer

The prophets who had predicted a mild winter because corn husks were thin had nothing to say in Thursday's

The householder who had looked forward to Thanksgiving as a holiday and not planned for exercise with the

The next meeting of the Mayflower society is to be held at the Mohican hotel in New London on Forefathers'

At Ashford, Windham county, H. N. Amidon has raised and husked over 700 bushels of corn this year and H. P. Amidon 580 bushels.

At a meeting of Phi Beta Kappa at Wesleyan university, one of the men chosen from the senior class was E. S. Clark of Fishers island.

Luther M. Spaulinds, who died suddenly at his home at Leonard Bridge Monday night, was a brother-in-law of Charles G. Cobb of Norwich.

Labor Commissioner P. H. Connolly has sent out circulars to labor organ-izations in the state requesting information in regard to membership, etc. Rev. Waiter S. Ela of Pascoag, well known to local Methodists, was 79 years old on Sunday last. He preach-ed in the Methodist church at Maple-ville on that doy.

The November money order business at the postoffice and sub-stations has been unusually heavy and with the coming of December the foreign business for Christmas will begin

The receiving warehouses of the New York, New Haven & Hartford raliroad were closed all day Thurs-day; the delivery warehouses were open only from 7 to 11 a.m.

Fourth annual sale of Christmas noveities by Miss Maud C. Buckingham, 66 McKinley avenue. Opening days Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 2 and 3, from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m., continuing through the week.—adv.

A meeting of the Connecticut branch of the Association of Collegi-ate Alumnae is to be held Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. P.

In St. Patrick's church Thanksgiving morning at 8.45, Rev. J. H. Bröderick celebrated an anniversary requiem high mass for Mrs. Margaret Flynn, relatives and friends of the family at-

Herbert Myrick, editor of the New necticut cities to send delegates to protest against the granting by federal authorities of permission for a dam across the Connecticut river.

Keim were held Tuesday afternoon at the First Methodist church, Hartford. The body was placed in the receiving vault at Cedar Hill cemetery. Burial will be in the Old North cemetery at

As late as Saturday, naturalists found 12 varieties of wild flowers including common and fall dandelions, shepherds purse, yarrow, purple aster, chickweed, daisy, mustard, may weed, toad flax, hedge mustard, red clove and freebain.

Henry Fieldon, for two years superintendent of Branford farms, Eastern Point, has tendered his resignation, to take effect Dec. 1. George A. Streeter, who has been employed on the estate for the past two months, will be Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. Amasa H. Morse left Wednesday for southern California to spend the winter. Mr. Morse recently sold his 125-acre farm at North Wood-stock to Mr. Martel, who runs experimental farms for the Amherst state Bishop T. F. Davies of the western Massachusetts diocese of the Episco-pal church has just given the Holy Trinity mission of Southbridge $250 to be added to $2,600 already saved up for the building of a new church on the lot purchased last year. Walter R. Denison of Groton sailed from New York on Thursday in the liner Franconia for Spain. Mr. Denison intends to remain in the souther part of Europe until spring. Incident-al to sailing on November 28 Mr. Den-ison celebrated his birthday. The will of the late Etta Ide, The will of the late Etta Ide, for-merly of Woodstock, has been filed in the probate court. She leaves $4,300, all in personal property. An equal division of her estate is to be made among her brothers and sisters, with the exception of George, who is be-queathed $1,00.

queathed $1.00.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Frank M. Eager. (Special to The Bulletin.)
Palmer, Mass., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Frank Eager is dead in her home in Monson following a long illness of heart disease and illness incident to old age. She was 81 years old and was the daughter of the late Jeeremiah Bumstead. She was a graduate of Wesley. An academy and married Mr. Eager in Norwich, Conn., Nov. 3, 1851. Besides her husband she leaves two children, Dr. George L. Eager of Waterbury, Conn., and Mrs. Jennie Rokenbaugh of New York city.

Dance Brought Many from Other Cit-

There was a large attendance at the dance given in St. Mary's T. A. B. hail Wednesday evening. Music was fur-nished by Jackson's orchestra of seven pieces. Guests were present from Providence, New Haven, Putnam, Dan-lelson, Willimantic and Mystic.

Bakers Made Peace. Two bakers of the city were befor city court on Thursday morning, having sworn out a complaint on

PERSONAL

George Kilroy of Meriden is visiting

Arthur Brady of Worcester is visiting at his heme in this city. Fred Maisak of Springfield was laiter here over Thanksgiving.

Charles Noyes of Hartford is spend-ng a few days at his home here, Richard Royston of Hartford was at Frank Sisk of New London has enered the employ of Lee & Osmood. John W. Lawson of Worcester spent Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Brotherton of linton spent Thanksgiving in-this rom a two weeks' visit in New York

Mrs. George L. Puller has returned

Miss Bertha L. Sargent of Putnam was a recent guest of friends in Nor Joseph Budnick of Hartford is pending several days at his home on Miss Edith Holden is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles H. Adams, in Worcester, Mass.

Norman Armstrong of Waterbury spent Thanksglving day with his par-ents in this city.

Miss Helen M. Kelley of Norwich is spending the holiday week in Dayville with her parents.

Rev. Henry E. Anderson and family f Old Mystic were here for Thanks-lving with relatives.

Miss Lillian Van Wagner of Hartford is the guest of Mrs. Charles L. Tracy of Main street.

William Street is critically ill with bronchitis and pneumonia at his home in Poquetanuck. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gardner of danchester are visiting his brother, harles Gardner of Dunham street. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hartley and children are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bentley of Lafayette street, Herbert Hooker has returned to this city after spending several months in Quincy, Mass., and in New York state, Miss Eloise Landphere has returned to Montville, after a visit in Groton as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tyler

Elfred Rogers of Connecticut agri-cultural college, Storrs, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rogers, They were man

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Rockwell and daughter of Ivoryton spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. George Beebe at Norwich.

Attorney Edward L. Dennis of New York spent Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Dennis of West Thames street.

Miss Madeline Ritchie returns to New Haven today after spending Thanksgiving with relatives and friends in this city.

Charles Cassidy of New York and Dr. Louis Cassidy of Waterbury were the guests of their father, Dr. Patrick Cassidy, on Thursday.

OI Colenester.
The present plant is a three and four 90 feet deep, with bleach house, dyestory structure 125 feet by from 60 to house and spool house, employing 150 house and spool house. Francis Luce of Norwich Free Acad-at his home in Niantic.

Mrs. John E. Vaughn of Norwich was in Central Village recently to at-tend a meeting of the D. A. R. chap-Miss Florence Klinck and Miss Bessle Keefe of New London were among those attending the wedding of Miss Florence Stark on Wednesday. Thomas Francis Shea, a student at Holy Cross college, Worcester, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Shea, on Main street, for the

Mrs. George M. Farnham and Miss Elizabeth Farnham have returned to New London after spending a few with Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Garn-

An East Haven correspondent writes Mrs. Ella Converse of Norwich was a recent guest of friends in town. For several years Mrs. Converse was a resident of the town and made many warm friends during her stay here who are ever pleased to meet her.

WEDDING.

Higgins-Davis. Joseph A. Higgins and Miss Eva E day evening at seven o'clock, by the rector, Rev. J. H. Fitz-maurice. The places of honor were filled by Miss Margaret Higgins. a sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, and George H. Davis, brother of the bride, as best man. The bride and her maid ture hats.

Following the ceremony at the recory there was a reception and wed-ling supper at the home of the bride's parents on Paimer street, on the East side, and relatives and friends were entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins left on the boat train for a wedding trip to New York and New Jersey and on their return will take up their residence at No. 132 Boswell avenue.

The groom is the son of the late Michael J. and Mary J. Higgins and is employed as a toolmaker by the Hopkins & Allen Arms Co. The bride is the daughter of Henry E. and Adna B. (Ellis) Davis. Both the young peo-ple are well known in this city and have the best wishes of their numerous future.

ous friends for a happy and prosper-

Sunday morning at 7 o'clock Joseph Gendron and Miss Rose M. Labrie were united in marriage by Rev. J. H. Broderick in St. Patrick's church. The couple were attended by Henry L. Gendron and Henry labrie. A large number of relatives and friends attended tended, some coming from Warren, Worcester, Grafton and Woonsocker Following the ceremony in the church a wedding breakfast an reception were held in the home of the bride's par-nets at 22 Lafayette street. There were many wedding presents from the friends of the couple, including china, silverware, cut glass and furniture. Mr. and Mrs. Gendron will reside on Lafayette street after a short tour to Boston and Ware, Mass. They are expected home Sunday. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Gendron and is a native of West Warren, Mass. He has made his home in this Mass. He has made his home in this city for some time and is employed at the plant of the Hopkins & Allen company. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Labrie and is also Mr. and Mrs. Henry Labrie and is also The bride is a native of Ledyard and is the daughter of Ebenezer Story.

Widely Known In Norwich Business

Gardiner Hall, Jr., Who Celebrated Golden Wedding Anniversary at South Willington Has Long Had Bank Account Here-Identified With Norwich Industries.

When Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Hall, The family subsequently lived in Jr., at South Willington celebrated Stafford and Rockville and young Gartheir golden wedding anniversary on Thursday, the event had a large local distry, which has been his life work. erest through Mr. Hall's intimate The family moved to Willington in Interest through Mr. Hall's intimate business relations in this city. For all the time he and the mill of Gardiner Hall, Jr., & Co. have been the cepter around which the village of West Willington has thriven and grown, from about 44 to 46 years Mr. Hall has been coming to this city to do his banking when he stepped up to make his first deposit there, and Colonel Charles W. Gale, now cashier of the Thames, is the only man still with the bank who was there when Mr. Hall began his Mr. and Mrs. Hall celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Thursas foretold in The Bulletin, with a family gathering and dinner of about 85 at 11 o'clock in the morning and a concert on the Baptist church in the evening to which the whole vil-

GARDINER HALL, JR.

They were married in Coventry by astor Jennings on Thanksgiving day 1862, which was also November 25 that year. Mrs. Hall's maiden name was Fannie Parker, and she was a native of Leicester, England, coming to this country when very young. She reached her 73d birthday last Tuesday. Mr. Hall was 75 the 14th of last July and was born in Newport, R. I., one of twin children of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Conn. family, but was temporarily residing in Newport to run a mill there. His mother was Zeviah Emeline Essex of Colchester.

Francis Luce of Norwich Free Academy is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Luce. Hall has paid cash and never given a man of prominence in the city. He is also an exceedingly large stockholder in the Berkshire mills of 260,000 spinnote. His purchases have run up to dies and 6,400 looms at Adams, Mass. $150,000 or $250,000 at once, but it was Of his eight brothers and sisters, > mers.

> Mr. Hall's twin sister Emeline lived only about ten days after her birth." There were eight children in the fam-There were eight children in the family altogether. When Mr. Hall was Page of Springfield. They have lost one daughter, Chara (Mrs. George Elliott), of Willimantic, in honor of whom Mr. Hall built the Memorial there were no railroads.

TWO FREIGHT CARS Blocked the Line from Central Village Down.

were attired in tailored suits and pic-by trolley and made the hoat at New London. To accommodate persons on the Central Village line who arrived here on the last car, Starter John Kinney of the Connecticut company held up the 10.45 New London trolley at DeWolf's switch at Trading Cove and the Central Village car was sent down to that point, where the passen-gers were transferred to the New Lon-

Family Party of Sixteen. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jewett had as guests on Thanksgiving day relatives from Boston, Westerly, New Haven and this city, sixteen in all. These in-claded Mrs. Jewetts' mother, sister

Elks Observe Thanksgiving.

Fegg-Nadolny.

Two bakers of the city were before the city court on Thursday morning, one having sworn out a complaint on which the other was summoned in, claiming that he was being constantly bothered by the other. After a full statement of the case they took the advice to shake hands and be friends.

Bridgeport—Supt of Police Eugens Birmingham celebrated Monday his toth anniversary of his execution with the department of the case they took the advice to shake hands and be friends.

Bridgeport—Supt of Police Eugens Birmingham celebrated Monday his toth anniversary of his execution with the department of the case they took the advice to shake hands and be friends.

Bridgeport—Supt of Police Eugens Birmingham celebrated Monday his toth anniversary of his execution with the department of the case they took the advice to shake hands and be friends.

Bridgeport—Supt of Police Eugens Birmingham celebrated Monday his toth anniversary of his execution with make their home in this city.

The groom is the married life.

Harry Fogg and Miss Clara Naddiny were united in marriage at 5 o'clock Thursday evening at the parsonage of the Central Baptist church by Rev. H. J. Wyckoff. The bride is the Central Baptist church by Rev. P. C. Wright. They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Nickerson left for a short wedding tour and on their return will make their home in this city.

The groom is the sun of Dearborn sorter in Holyeke, Mass.

Earle C. Herrick of Pawtucket spent Thanksgiving day at his home in this city.

Earle C. Herrick of Pawtucket spent Thanksgiving day at his home in this city.

Solution in the war came and his partner enlisted, the business not proving a success. Mr. Hall then worked for a number of months in 1861 and early in 1862 in Willimantic in the bleach at the window of the Thames bank, at the window of the Thames bank according to Mr. Hall's recollection, week in the thread mill, but June 10.

MRS, GARDINER HALL, JR. 862, settled up there and started ou

f the winders, worked nights, and old his goods, soon making from $300 to $400 a week. There were only two or three families in the village then, where now there are about 300 people employes of his mill. Such was the excellence of roduct, the promptness of his ship-nent, and the dependability of his production that he could always de-bend upon his customers sticking to him. One other feature of the business is that it has always been a famy affair, not one dollar of interest ver having been owned outside of he family. At one time his two rothers-in-law, the late John R. hamplin of Norwich and Marcus M. Johnson of Willington, were partners with him in the business. In this city Mr. Hall was next to Arms company, but these interests have been sold out. For 25 years he has been a stockholders in the Ponestory structure 135 feet by Rolling 150 house and spool house, employing 150 hands, and making 36 million dozen spools of thread per year.

This business experience Mr. Busin Jones of Willimantic and Mrs. Ralph Page of Springfield. They have lost

OFF THE TRACK

From 6 o'clock Thursday evening to in early hour this morning the New Haven road was blocked by the deralling of a freight car at Central of barrels strung up on long poles were accident, but considerable trouble was after nightfall until late in the eveaccasioned by the occident. Both the ning ruddy glows all over the city train due here at 7.03 and the boat marked the various scenes wherein train due here at 10 o'clock were held youth conducted the annual Thankslimit of the electric line. The delay in securing a wrecking crew from Midway was given as responsible for the long delay in clearing up the line.

At 10.20 o'clock Station Agent Atwood here received orders to send a special to the wreck to take passengers from the two delayed trains to New London. An engine with several coaches was despatched at 11 o'clock and returned to this city at 1 o'clock bruises result.

by trolley and made the hoat at New don car and were able to get the New York boat.

and four brothers, together with their families.

Norwich lodge of Elks observed open house on Thanksgiving day with the house committee in charge of the entertainment. An excellent turkey din ner was served and a pleasant social time was enjoyed. There was a good number present year to the small boy was that carried out last evening when hundreds Village. No one was injured in the consumed by flames. From shortly up by the wreck until the line was cleared early this morning. The trolley service from this city to Central Village was not interfered with, as the accident occurred just beyond the limit of the electric line. The delay and returned to this city at 1 o'clock with the passengers, continuing to New London. It was arranged to hold the New York boat until 12:20, but the train did not arrive in time to make connections.

SEVERAL HUNDRED BARRELS WENT UP IN SMOKE Nerwich Boys Keep up the Thanksgiving Custom of Their Ancestors.

There were about 20 people at the There were about 30 people at the capitaln, turned into ashes 150 barrels station in this city to take the boat on what is known as Brown's park, train to New London, and these went the first string being lighted at about on what is known as Brown's park, the first string being lighted at about 6.45. In the rear of Dr. G. A. Comeau's house on Broad street, a party of small boys had 30 barrels, which they sent up in smoke and ruin. On Dr. L. E. Walker's lot on Division street there West Pearl street, and Norwich Town came in for their share of lijumina-tion. The results of weeks of effort consumed in a single night is no damper to the enthusiasm of the youth of Norwich and with the opening of Oc-tober, 1912, the housewife will again enter a two months' state of continu-

FLAT TIRE CAUSES

When It Slid Into the Side of the Road-Percy Palmer Was Driving.

An automobile driven by Percy Paimat slow speed at the time it suffered only trifling damage, Mr. Palmer said, and he was not hurt. A front tire went that was not hurt. A front tire went that went the was not hurt. A front tire went that went the time it suffered only trifling damage, Mr. Palmer said, and he was not hurt. A front tire went that went the went flat near the witch hazel mill, send-ing the machine sliding off to one side of the road where it turned over, Mr. Paimer staying in the seat.

Later the machine was righted and went away under its own power.

First Snow Storm. Although there have been one or two flurries previously, Thursday's was the first real snow storm of the year. The flakes started to fall shortly after daylight in the morning and continued without cessation into the evening, when the sky cleared. The snow was not sufficiently heavy to cause any particular damage, except perhaps to the feelings of some persons who had hoped for bright weather on the holiday.

Smith and Russell Kinney in the glee club and Robert Briggs in the mando-lin club.

Besides the glee and mandolin numbers, the programme included selections by a violinist, a quartette, read-

AT THE INSTITUTIONS Bulletin's Turkeys Were the Big Event at Dinners at Three-Children Ex-

At the New London county home there were 80 children, 46 boys and 40 girls, who enjoyed a Thanksgiving dinner, in which The Bulletin's tur-key was the important item on the menu. How grateful the children were is shown by the following letters:

66 Smith Ave., Norwich, Conn.. Nov. 28, 1912. Nov. 28, 1912.

The Bulletin Company, Norwich, Conn.
Dear Sirs: I thank you very much for the turkey. It tasted delicious.
It was very kind of you to send it to us children. I think we all enjoyed It very much. I will close with thanks. Yours truly, JOSEPH LEMOINE.

66 Smith Ave., Norwich Conn., Lov. 28, 1912. The Bulletin Company, Norwich Conn. Dear Gentlemen: I thank fou for County Home, Norwich, Gonn., Nov. 28, 1912. The Bulletin Company, Norwick, Conn. Dear Sirs: The turkey you gave to the 'county home tasted delictors. I think it was dressed well and it was a good sized turkey. It was very generous of you to give it to us. I hope you had a good Thanksgiving as well as we did. My stomach was full when got up from the table.

Yours truly,
CHARLIE WILLEAMS.

County Home, Norwich, Conn.

Nov. 28, 1912.

The Bulletin Company, Norwich, Coan.

Dear Sirs: I thank you very much for the turkey you send us. I think it is very kind of you. I saw the turkey when it first came and I think it was very big. In enjoyed my Thanksgiving dinner very much. Will close with thanks.

Yours truly,

ALICE PHILLIPS.

County Home, Norwich Conn.,

County Home, Norwich Conn., The Bulletin Company, Norwich, Conn.
Dear Gentlemen: I thank you very much for the turkey. It was very nice alone in South Willington as Gardiner Hall, Jr., & Co., the firm that has grown and increased to its present dimy Thanksgiving dinner. I hope you enjoyed yours, I think the other children enjoyed the turkey dinner. We spoke pieces and sang songs Wednes-day. I didn't have to sing. I will

day. I didn't love. Yours truly, close now with love. Yours truly, CLARA M. SUPER. County Home, Norwich, Conn., Dear Sirs: 1 thank you very much for the turkey you sent us. I enjoyed it very much. It tasted lovely. We all saw it when it came from the market. It helps the Thanksgiving dinner to taste nicely. We had a nice Thanks-giving dinner. It was very kind of you to send it to us. I will now close.

Yours truly,
SUSIE MATASSA, Age 11.

At Rock Nook Home. At Rock Nock children's home where there was another Bulletin turkey, the family for dinner number 25, of which In this city Mr. Hall was next to 13 were children. They enjoyed tur-the largest stockholders in the Daven-key with dressing, mashed potatoes port Firearms company and a large stockholders in the Hopkins & Allen Arms company, but these interests have been sold out. For 25 years be have been sold out. The Bulletin turkey follow

Norwich Bulletin Company

Dear Sirs. We want to thank you for the great big turkey you sent us We all enjoyed it very much, For dinner we had mashed potatoes a cash payment just the same. A notable point also is that he has never champin of this city and Albert Hall dressing, and cranberry sauce for desuntil the present year employed drum- of Idaho Springs, Col. Mr. and Mrs. sert we had mince and squash ples. Gardiner Hall, Jr., have four children living, Col. William Henry Hall and you had as nice a Thanksgiving as Rose of South Willington, Mrs. Robert we did. Yours truly, ours truly, MILDRED F, EILER.

The Norwich Bulletin Company Dear Sirs: I am writing you a few lines to thank you for the turkey you sent us. It looked and tasted so good. I hope you had a good turkey. We all had a nice dinner. We all thank you for the turkey. Yours truly,

MAUDE EILER.

The Norwich Bulletin Compan Dear Sirs: We all want to thank you for the turkey you sent us. I can tell you it was great. With the turpies, apples, nuts, dates and candy, Hope you had as nice a turkey as you Yours truly, WILLIAM WEBSTER. At Sheltering Arms.

praise of the turkey, which was one donated by the Bulletin. The menu-also included dressing and gravy, mashed potatoes and turnips, onlons hubbard squash, cranberry sauce, cel ery, mince pie, plum pudding, or-anges, grapes, apples, figa, bananas, candy and nuts. In the afternoon there were ice cream and cake. At Eliza Huntington Home. At the Eliza Huntington Memorial home, the family of 9 was decreased by several being out of town for the day, so that there were six who enjoyed the turkey dinner. All were members of the family as there were

The family at the Sheltering Arms numbers 13, but there were 18 at the dinner Thursday, and all spoke in

At Backus Hospital. A turkey dinner with all that goes with it was served at the Backus hos-At State Hospital.

For the 890 patients at the Norwich State hospital with the 150 employes there was a turkey dinner, and the day was much of a holiday with the work lightened as much as possible. There was music in the various wards, At the Almshouse. The 75 inmates at the almshouse, of whom one-third are women, were regaled upon a disher of roast spare-rib furnished by George W. Carroll, There were mashed potatoes, turnips ranberries, tea and apple ple, besides, with fruit from the United Workers. In the evening there was music in which George Bemont with his zither and harmonica was a prominent con-

At the Jail. The 49 prisoners at the fall, which includes three women, had roast spare rlb with gravy, mashed potatoes, or-anges and other "fixin's" for their din-

BROWN GLEE CLUB AT SLATER HALL Students Gave Enjoyable Concert Before Enthusiastic Audience. An audience of closs to 300 graculties by the Brown musical clubs here Thursday evening for a concert at Slater Memorial hall and enjoyed the promote given by the 20 young men added interest was gramme given by the 20 young men who appeared. Added interest was given to the production locally by the fact that three Norwich young men and Academy graduates were in the Brown clubs. These were F, Russell Smith and Russell Kinney in the glee

QUICKLY CURES THE We advertise exactly as It is WORST BACKACHE

New Remedy Makes Kidney You get your Troubles, Bladder Disorders, and Rheumatic Pains Disappear as if by Magic.

one to suffer with backaching, kid ney trouble, have disagreeable blad der and urinary disorders to conten stift joints, and its heart-wrenching pains, for the new discovery, Crox-one, quickly and surely cures all such troubles.

Croxone is the most wonderful remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out Dear Gentlemen: I thank you for the torkey you gave us. I have enjoyed eating my dinner many other times. I enjoyed this dinner this time, too. It tasted very delicious. I was very nice of you to give it to us. I hope you enjoyed your Thanksgiving dinner. The children thank you and other remedies at the best mere be at the purpose. It acts on the principle of removing the cause. Pills, tablet ing dinner. The children thank you was truly Yours truly, by stimulate the kidneys, giving tem HELEN NOVAK. porary relief. Croxone cleans out the

It soaks right in through the wall neys and urinary organs clean, strong, healthy and well.

you have used, the very principle Croxone is such, that it is practica impossible to take it into the num

Croxone will quickly relieve you of your misery. You can secure an original package of Croxone at triffin if it fails in a single case

Mr. Kenyon was given rounds of en thusiastic applause, and the quartett numbers were favorites that prough encores. Mr. Shepard, the reader, wa encores. Mr. Shepard, the reader, was a humorous entertainer of ability, and the two soloists, Mr. Myers, buritone, and Mr. Holding, basso, were warmly applauded.

A Brown banner decorated the rear of the suge. In the final number, Alma Mater, sung by the combined clubs, half a dozen Brown men in the readers was and stood while the audience rose and stood while The clubs were brought her through the efforts of Miss Hellen i Smith, sister of the Norwich member of that name in the gice club. To Swan, Howard Benjamin, Frank Burk Prentice Chase, Charles Prentice, To odore Haviland and Edward McKay Incidents In Society.

Miss Rosalle Rennett is spending club met this week with Otis street members. The Wednesday Afternoon Auction York is the guest of her parents, M Dayville spent the holiday with Mr Bidwell's mother, Mrs. E. G. Bidwell Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Briggs of Broadway entertained twelve of the members of the Brown Glee club over

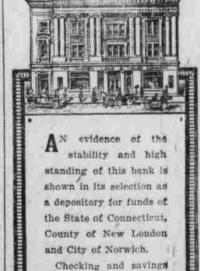

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Bidwell

A family party of seven was entertained Thursday by Miss Sarah E Pope of Broadway, out of town guest being Mr. and Mrs. J. Wyman Carroll Jr., of Elkins Park, Pa ful invitation. Thanksgiving evening dance at the Norwich dub for the members of the Brown musical clubs which was attended by 60 couples. dance begun at 19.30, after the con-cert was over, and the final number was at 2.30 this morning. Miller's rchestra played. Mrs. Clinton E. Stark of Slater ave nue gave a small informal at hor in Thursday afternoon from four ix. Assisting her were Mrs. Pet Wright, Mrs. Frederic W. Carey an Mrs. Edwin W. Higgins. In the dining room Mrs. Charles W. Prentice an

Mrs. William H. Out served refresh ments, assisted by Miss Eather M Starr. Miss Muriel Preston, Kern E

Fontaine and Lowell R. Stark. East Hartford,-Mrs. Marletta Williams has presented the state library the Samuel Williams collection of mil-itary rolls and documents, which inludes a commission made out to Sam uel Williams as a lieutenant in 1824 and signed by Oliver Wolcott.

THE THAMES LOAN & TRUST CO. NORWICH. CONN. THE BANK OF ON SAVINGS accounts invited and 4 per cent, pald on sav-

THERE is no advertising medium Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bletin for business assults.

MURPHY & MeGARAT

money's worth here.

That's why you ought to buy your clothing here. You get the right quality, the correct style and a perfect fit.

You'll find here an Overcoat model that will please you; a Suit made in your style; and the prices are right. We guarantee everything you spend your money on here.

Overcoats, $12.00 and up. Suits, $12.00 up to $28.00.

Salt Nut Meats at Rallion's The NORWICH

BUSINESS

COLLEGE is distinguished by its honest efforts in behalf of its students. the quality of its training and the success of its graduates. It > are proved by those able to The courses of study, the staff of teachers, the equipment, the very methods of conducting the school work, are such as to give young people the best possible training to succeed in business At the Norwich Business College students are taught how to study. New pupils enter every is upon these factors that we

At 14 Bath Street,

W. E. CANFIELD, ""

Principa

good to get prices on a large line of HORSE BLANKETS, FUR AUTO COATS and ROBES. A heavy line of COON COATS at !

Ask to see the Montana Robes and the Stewart Horse Clipping and Sheep Shearing Machines. The L. L. Chapman Co.

low down prices.

Catering!

perionced employees and years of experience, we are prepared to de all kinds of catering. First-class cooks and waiters furnished for all occasions.

Crockery, linen and silver to

The Parker-Davenport Co. NORWICH, CONN. ##

MISS M. C. ADLES Hair, Scalp and Face Specialist yould help many a faded, neglected!

devoted her life to studying how top make women beautiful and healthful

It's never too late to Improve,

Come to her finely appointed, sanitars business suite for advice and help.

306 Main St., next to Chelsen Bu Telephone 652-4. FURS REPAIRED will clean, repair and remodel your furs and guarantee first-class word or half price if you will notify me as Furs and guarantee first-class word for half price if you will notify me a once. Drop postal card and I will out and deliver all goods.

CEORGE G. GRANT.

BRUCKNER, the Furrier,

Undertaker and Embalmez 12 Providence St., Taffville Prompt attention to day or night calls Telephone 530. apri4M WFasi

Phone your order. Prompt service

Pies, Cake and Bread

LOUIS H. BRUNELLE